National Conference on “Sustainable Processes for Energy and Environment
(SPEE - 2026)”
27th –28th November, 2026
(Online Mode)

Organized by Department of Chemical Engineering
Maulana Azad
National Institute of Technology
Bhopal – 462 003 (M. P.)

About the Conference

The conference on “Sustainable Processes for Energy and Environment” brings together eminent scientists, academicians, industry experts and students to discuss recent advances in nuclear science and its technological applications. The program begins with an inaugural address, followed by invited talks spanning key areas such as significant advancements in process technologies, energy, separation techniques, purification methods, effluent treatment, and water reuse. A special focus is given to emerging domains like the application of artificial intelligence and machine learning in chemical process, petrochemical, and biotechnology sectors. This conference aims to provide a platform for presenting and discussing recent innovations, emerging technologies, and research developments in the field of Energy and Environment. It brings together academicians, researchers, industry professionals, and students to exchange ideas, share expertise, and explore future research opportunities. The event concludes with a summary session outlining major insights and future directions, aiming to foster collaboration and knowledge exchange within the community.

Conference Themes

- Catalysts and Reactors
- Processing of materials
- Waste to Wealth
- Green Chemistry
- Renewable Energy
- Waste to Energy
- Water Treatment

About MANIT

Maulana Azad National Institute of Technology (MANIT), formerly known as Maulana Azad College of Technology (MACT), is an Institution of National Importance named after Maulana Abul Kalam Azad, the first Education Minister of India. Established in 1960 through a joint initiative of the Government of India and the Government of Madhya Pradesh, MANIT has emerged as a premier technical institution. MANIT is situated in Bhopal, the capital city of Madhya Pradesh, is popularly known as the "City of Lakes" owing to its scenic natural and man-made lakes. The Institute is dedicated to excellence in education, research, and innovation, with over 300 faculty members and 6,000 students. It offers 9 undergraduate programs, 30 postgraduate programs, and Ph.D. programs across diverse disciplines, contributing significantly to the nation's technological advancement.

About Department

The Department of Chemical Engineering at Maulana Azad National Institute of Technology is committed to excellence in education, research, and innovation. The department offers B.Tech., M.Tech., and Ph.D. programs, providing a strong foundation in chemical engineering principles and emerging technologies. With well-equipped teaching laboratories and advanced research facilities, it promotes high-quality learning and cutting-edge research. Faculty members and scholars actively pursue multidisciplinary research to address industrial, environmental, and societal challenges, contributing to sustainable technological development and innovation.
